

Bryce Baschuk

Experience

Bloomberg BNA	Current	Washington, D.C.
Telecommunications and media reporter, covering Congress and the FCC.
Communications Daily	2010 - 2013	Washington, D.C.
Capitol Hill reporter. Duties include daily reporting of congressional policy relating to telecom, media, spectrum, privacy, cybersecurity and copyright issues.
The Washington Examiner	March 2010	Washington, D.C.
Freelance reporter. I pitched and wrote a series of regional real estate profiles.
National Public Radio	Jan. 2010	Washington, D.C.
Production assistant for Morning Edition and intern for All Things Considered. Duties included research, guest booking and sound production.
United Press International	Oct. 2009	Washington, D.C.
Intern for the newswire's Washington office. I submitted articles and photographs for publication and promoted UPI's student website.
Edens	Sept. 2007	Boston, Mass.
As a real estate leasing agent for a private retail property owner I closed 45 deals worth a total of $7.6 million.
The Washington Times	Oct. 2006	Washington, D.C.
Business reporter. I wrote, researched and pitched stories, maintained regional business contacts and completed assignments under a strict, daily deadline.
The American Red Cross	Oct. 2005	Montgomery, Ala.
Katrina volunteer. I relocated to assist the Alabama, Mississippi and Florida chapters distribute resources and money to residents in need.

Awards

- Society of Professional Journalists Dateline Award:
"SOPA Cosponsors Running for the Hills"
- Eagle Scout: As the former leader and mentor of Troop 90, I organized weekly meetings, camping trips and service projects to benefit my community.

Education

Trinity College	2005 B.A. English	Hartford, Conn.
Sydney University	2003	Sydney, Australia
Phillips Academy - Andover	2001	Andover, Mass.
Gonzaga College High School	2000	Washington, D.C.